

WELCOME TO THE BELLEVILLE STEIN HAUS.

Inspired by classic cocktail lounges
and hideaway speakeasies.

The kind of rooms where stories last longer than the drinks.

Here, everything is done with intention —
from what's poured, to what's plated,
to how the night unfolds.

Our Story

Before Stein Haus, there was simply Judy — a classic cook who never thought of herself as a baker.

Then everything slowed down.

She started baking, learning the dough, the herbs, the timing — and fell in love with the process.

*When it came time to open our house,
fresh baked bread and flatbread crusts felt natural — essential, even.*

Paired with cocktails inspired by the places we love most, Stein Haus became exactly what we were searching for — a place to settle in, slow down, and enjoy the night.

Enjoy.
